VIDHYARAMBHAM AND DEPARTMENT ORIENTATION-ACADEMIC YEAR 2023-24

The Department of Commerce at Christ College of Science and Management organized an orientation program for I B.Com (General) students from July 25 to 31, 2023, to facilitate their smooth transition into college life. The program included sessions on campus culture, academic policies, faculty introductions, and essential skills such as goal setting, money management, public speaking, and office etiquette. Faculty members and external experts conducted interactive sessions on topics like career opportunities, higher education options, aptitude, and the use of Learning Management Systems (LMS). Students were introduced to the college's values, traditions, and support services, including academic advising and counseling. The program aimed to familiarize students with rules, regulations, and academic standards while fostering professional and social responsibility. Icebreaker activities encouraged student engagement, while sessions on financial management and computer applications in commerce provided valuable insights. With participative learning as its core methodology, the program successfully prepared 97 participants for an enriching academic journey, equipping them with vital skills and knowledge for their future endeavors.
